

- Since 1998, Kevin has passionately enjoyed coming alongside athletes and coaches, providing them with genuine care and Biblical life counsel. He currently serves the UCLA athletic department through his ministry, 4TheJourney.
- A Maryland/DC area native, Kevin attended UCLA in the early 90's on a football scholarship, earning All-American honors as a wide receiver. After graduating with a Bachelor's degree in Sociology, he spent 3 years in the NFL.
- Following his retirement, Kevin worked 14 years with Athletes in Action, spiritually investing in the lives of college and professional athletes and coaches.
- From 2008-2012, he served as team chaplain of the Pittsburgh Steelers. During his 4 seasons with the team, he was blessed to be a part of Super Bowls 43 & 45.
- Kevin earned his Master's in Christian Ministry & Leadership, focusing on Pastoral Care & Counseling from Biola University's, Talbot School of Theology.
- He and his wife, Jenny, a former UCLA Volleyball player and 2000 U.S. Beach Volleyball Olympian, have two children and reside in the San Fernando Valley area and call Shepherd Church in Porter Ranch, CA their home church.